A Chat-Chat with the People.

No man is a true friend of the people unless he has courage enough to speak to them, the real truth. The men of Newport, like the inhabitants of every other island, are exceedingly jealous. Jealous of their own rights; jealous of the rights of their neighbors when those rights may be affected by a stranger, and jealous of one another when their rights are brought into immediate contact. Outside of business they will do any thing for you. In their business it will be inconsistent with their idea of independence to show any accommodation to any one. They lay down laws for their government which are as inchangeable as the laws of the Medes and Persians. If you are the professional wood-sawyer to dig your garden, he will think that he is insulted. If you go to a shop to buy any article or to have one made, the seller or manufacturer, will think that he is accommodating you, as much by selling as you are accommodating him by carrying to him your custom. If you ask him to step out of his regular routine of business, he deems himself insulted, and will be apt to make you mildly sensible of the fact. This idea is better founded in justice than in general practice. The insularity of our people makes them peculiar. Their jealous independence is to them a costly article. If a father selects employment for his son, if he succeeds in getting it, very well, if not his son is brought up an idler. Industry, energy and economy in a man with honesty, will generally build him up to a respectable position in society. If these virtues are united in all or in a majority of the people in a place, the place will grow, flourish, and will soon become distinguished for its intelligence and wealth. There are few places in this whole country where the people are more honest than in Newport. There are no insolent traders here, yet there are no very successful ones. No man in Newport dare to involve himself much in the risks of commercial adventure, because if he does this he will certainly have all the back-shop articles "now large" fortune in hand can stand this. There are few men who have purposes so strong that they will not fall before popular opinion: many a well designed and wise scheme has been abandoned because it did not meet with the approval of a back-shop trio who were as destitute of ability to consider the measure, as they were of wishes for the success of the projector. Idle men are never satisfied; they have nothing to do but manufacture public opinion. They do not succeed in bettering their condition, and are not content if others do. They therefore, aim their broadsides against every measure which promises to all better the condition of their neighbors. This community has too many fillers. Too many men who have no business of their own, and who are trying to destroy the business of others by their petty jealousies and kickings. We bring up too many idlers every year; we ought to have a benevolent society whose object should be to procure them employment. If half the effort had been made to build up Newport within the last two years, that has been made to destroy it, it would now have been nearly double its present size.

The railroad dividends, for the past six months, amount to about a million of dollars.—Exchanging paper.

Well, suppose they do—what of it? A "million of dollars" is a good deal of money, to be sure, in itself considered; but it is a very small amount, when viewed as high yearly interest on the enormous sum that has been expended in the construction and equipment of railroads in this country.—Why, the cost of the Massachusetts railroads alone, as we lately noticed, has been above Fifty Millions; and this one million of half-yearly dividends would be barely at the rate of 2 per cent. per annum, if wholly applicable to the Bay State—but it has to be divided among nearly all the States of the Union; so that, if considered in reference to the aggregate cost of U. S. railroads, it shrinks down to a rate of interest so small as to tax the capacity of a good microscope to discover it.

The landlords of New York, and so forth, are disturbed over the fact that there are no landlords and city rents there are reduced.—New York Sun.

This is news to us, as we don't care if it will be to all our readers. Eleven hundred and fifty tenement houses empty in New York, and in the season! but! God's gracious! what are we coming to? At this rate this quiet old town of ours will be depopulated. But is this really so? We are rather inclined to the belief that it is not, and that our New York counterpart has committed the very trifling error in figures of eleven hundred! Please inform us, ye men of the trading class, where you obtained your intelligence.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Hack Drivers of Newport. People are wont to complain in loud and bitter against hack-drivers, of their impurity, and perhaps insolence. Yet we hardly think they would be willing to disuse with them, but, on the contrary, we think their complaints would be quite as abundant, were they to arrive some day or night at the wharf and find none there.

But we have to do, in this article, with the back-drivers of Newport. At first these the drivers named above have been selected and educated, till they have almost become a novitiate. Yet we are slow to believe that the Newport back-drivers, as a class, will justify the obloquy that has been heaped upon them. The very nature of their occupation tends to a roughness of demeanor, which perhaps goes with others for more than it is intended; but there are those among them, and they are by no means a minority, who understand and adhere to the rules of propriety, and it is too bad that a few "black sheep" should be suffered to soil, in the public estimation, the "whole flock."

Our attention has been more immediately called to this matter, by a communication from Newport which lately appeared in the Narragansett Weekly, published in Westerly, R. I., from which the following is an extract:

"The leaders who give the whistles here on the arrival of a steamboat, are the most popular set of scoundrels that were ever permitted to curse Christendom. A passenger, on finding, in his room the samples of this vulgar scenes, with their whips and fags stuck into his face, at the frontmost seat, of being struck by his clothing and epithet of his language."

We hope to be excused, if we express it as our opinion that the writer of the above extract has spread it on rather thick. Business leads us daily to the wharf of the steamer Perry, giving us several opportunities for observation in regard to the conduct of these hack-men; and we are free to express our opinion, that during the six weeks this observation has extended, nothing has occurred to justify any approximation to the censure bestowed upon Newport back-drivers as a class, by the scold referred to. If a negative answer is given to the "Do you want a carriage, sir?" of the hackmen, an individual, unless he is extremely sensitive, need experience no annoyance at their hands, though the great number of these, and the competition existing between them, often renders their importunities annoying, and sometimes pernicious.

We would suggest to this useful class of men, that it is for their interest as well as credit, to disown these and every example of their number.

Monthly Review of Troops at the Fort. Saturday was the monthly review of the troops at Fort Adams, varied somewhat, in honor of the Peruvian Minister, who was present to witness the review.

The scene was opened by a grand salute in honor of the distinguished guest, from the barbette battery of 31 pounds on the ramparts. The pieces were loaded and fired with the regularity of clock-work, eliciting the admiration of a large number of ladies and gentlemen assembled.

The Company then descended to the Parade, and several evolutions with their four brass six pounders, and after firing some half-dozen rounds, proceeded to the redoubt south of the main fortification, firing was renewed, at a target with shot and shell, &c., in which the Company showed the same proficiency as before, displaying remarkable precision in their movements.

The review closed with a grand collation prepared by Col. Magruder, which was partaken of by a splendid galaxy of ladies and gentlemen, invited guests.

The day was fine, and the visitors were numerous, coming in carriages and boats. Col. Magruder, by infusing life and variety into these displays, contributes largely to the enjoyment of visitors and our own citizens.

Persons passing along Thames Street. The London News says it is held that bankers, clerks, cashiers and others in situations of trust, are not only entitled to occasional relaxation, but ought to be compelled to absent themselves for a time, now and then from their places of business, because this much fraud may be prevented. While a fraudulent person is on the spot and vigilant, he can keep his irregularities safe, but if you send him away to Scotland or Herne Bay, you break the threads of his plot, and he's pretty sure to be laid out. So now, a clerk who wants a holiday seems to have a new and proud claim to one. "I should like to have a little seavoy," will henceforward mean "Examine my books, compare my balances." And a man never taking a holiday—always a bad sign—will now be almost enough to warrant a call for a law-suit.

In connection with these, Mr. French has some samples of bouquets, constructed of shells and sea-moss, which are really beautiful and ingenious in their construction.

The stock of millinery and fancy articles in the store above named is not surprised in variety and quality by any in the city.

Many of the brightest virtues are like stars, there must be light, or they cannot shine. Without suffering, there could be no fortitude, no compassion, no sympathy.

The tombstone of a sweet girl, blind from her birth, bears this inscription: "There is no light there." The tomb of a child of three years, has inscribed upon it: "Wept in the morning."

Sheridan said, probably, when a general would let us render them perfect, the more they are educated, so much the more shall we be. On the education of their minds depends the wisdom of man.

Religious.

BAPTISM.—The ordinance of baptism was administered yesterday noon, at the Point, to ten persons, by immersion, by Rev. Mr. Talbot, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Marlborough Street.

INTERESTING SERVICES AT THE CHURCH.—Baptism was administered in the church, in the afternoon, to three children and the same number of young gentlemen. In administering this ordinance, the Rev. gentleman introduced what to us was a new feature; in the case of each of the infants he bestowed, beside the sprinkling, the gratuity of a kiss. We can see no objection to this in the case of children, though it is not, that we are aware of, "laid down in the books."

Following the administration of this ordinance, invitation was given for candidates to present themselves at the altar for admission to the church. Some eighteen or twenty came forward. Mr. Talbot, after explaining to them the nature of the solemn obligations they were assuming, gave to each the right hand of fellowship, accompanied with solemn and appropriate remarks. Some five or six were admitted to church membership, and thirteen on probation. A father, his son and daughter were among the number.

Immediately after this came the administration of the Lord's Supper, which being in the peculiar mode of the Episcopal Church, was very solemn and impressive.

The administration of this ordinance occupied about half an hour. As it was near 5 o'clock, the exercises were brought to a close with singing by the choir.

In glancing over that congregation of communicants, arrayed in the gaudy hues and costly head and body gear of fashion, we could not resist the conviction that like Quakerian, Methodism had retrograded not a little from the primitive simplicity which marked the dress of its members in former years. This may or may not be an improvement in their discipline; it certainly is not for us to judge.

We are informed that the Captain of the pleasure boat Grape Shot offered a challenge to the James Buchanan on Friday, to go to the South Buoy and back, which the latter declined, for obvious reasons. The Grape Shot has the reputation of being the fastest boat in Newport, and would no doubt have won the wager.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.—A Mortgagee's sale of a lot of valuable land containing six acres, pleasantly situated in the south part of this city, belonging to David O. King, will take place to-morrow. This presents a fine opportunity for those wishing to invest their capital in valuable property. See advertisement.

We would suggest to this useful class of men, that it is for their interest as well as credit, to disown these and every example of their number.

Excursion to Rocky Point.—There will be an excursion from Newport to Rocky Point to-morrow in the steamer New Clifton, leaving Sayer's wharf at 9 o'clock, A. M., and Rocky Point at 4 o'clock, P. M. Fare for the excursion 50 cents. A good time is expected, should the weather prove fine.

Look out for Your Dogs.—A dog showing evident tokens of madness, was shot in this city last Saturday. It is not known that any other dog had been bitten by him. No dog should be suffered to run at large at this season of the year without being muzzled.

We saw two young ladies out rowing, Saturday, in the club-boat "Whistling Dick." They handled the oars quite as skillfully as those of the other sex. We hope this piece of news will be come more general, as conducive to the health of those engaging in it.

We learn from good authority, that there are now seventy cottages rented for the "season," being more than have ever before been taken for summer residences. Those who own cottages have nearly all arrived, and the prospect brightens.

We are indebted to his Honor the Mayor, for a substantially bound copy of city Documents for 1858.

D. APPLETON & CO.

Publish this day a striking Society Poem of universal interest, entitled

"TWO MILLIONS."

BY WM. ALLEN KUTTER, Esq.

The popular author of that most spirited and successful production, "Nothing to Wear," which had an extraordinary circulation on both sides of the Atlantic, and was everywhere quoted, applauded and imitated. "Two Millions" is distinguished by all the brilliant characteristics of the writer as to wit, force and tenderness, and will be found in all respects equal, if not superior, to Nothing to Wear.

"Look through the world which all about you lies,

The noisy town, its common, daily life,

Flashed with coarse passions, hot with strife

The crowded street, the dens of vice and want,

The gilded halls where pride and fashion boast,

And from there mingled threads, the grave, the gay,

Weave, if you will, the epic of to-day."

WEIRE & CLARK,
THE OLD DOMINION COFFEE POT
Makes better Coffee than it is possible to obtain in any other way, because of an ingenious but simple arrangement, the housekeeper may mix her Coffee to any strength of time without loss of aroma, thus securing all the elements of the Coffee in their natural and proportional combinations.

The Old Dominion Coffee Pot is the most economical, for nothing being lost by evaporation in boiling, one-fourth less Coffee is required; while the beverage is stronger, more fragrant, and more delicious.

The Old Dominion Coffee Pot gives healthy beverage. Nervous, dyspeptic, and bilious persons, who have not failed to use Coffee for years, have been able to drink their favorite beverage again when made in this new boiler, and without an occurrence of any of the old unpleasant consequences. It is healthy, because by the use of a condenser, evaporation is prevented, and the Coffee can be boiled long enough to release all the natural elements of the berry, and get them in first proportions in the beverage.

The Old Dominion Coffee Pot never fails to do its work right. Cook cannot fail to save a cup of Coffee by neglect, or forgetfulness, after she has placed the boiler on the stove or range.

The Old Dominion Coffee Pot is for sale by WM. H. BLISS, 117 Thames street.

MEDICINES.

The following remedies are offered to the public as the best, and perfect, which medical science can afford. AYR'S CALMATIC PILLS have been prepared with the utmost skill which the medical profession of this age possesses, and their effects show they have virtues which surpass any combination of medicines hitherto known.

DR. DOW'S GRAND MEDICAL HOUSE AND OFFICE, NO. 7, ENDICOTT-ST., BOSTON, NO. 7, established for the permanent cure of all Private Diseases and the Suppression of Quackery.

DR. DOW, so well known for the last fifteen years in this city, where he has confined his practice to the treatment of neuralgic, syphilitic and other diseases of a particular, constitutional, or constitutional, is consulted above, from nine in the morning till seven in the evening. Patients may call during office hours. Office not open on Sundays.

All chronic and difficult cases, such as have existed for years, are completely and permanently cured in the shortest possible time by the Doctor's improved course of treatment.

MEDICAL ADVICE.—As it is always important to obtain the services of an experienced and skillful physician call on the celebrated DR. D. W. NO. 7, Endicott street.

DR. DOW will say nothing of his qualifications as a Physician and Surgeon, being a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, President of the State Medical Society of N. Y., and for more than twelve years a practitioner of this city, during which time he has doubtless cured more of those difficult and chronic cases (and, as nothing but practical experience can ensure success) than by other physicians in Boston.

By his late improved course of practical, Gouty, Rheumatic, and other affections, and other diseases of the urinary and sexual organs, are cured in a very few days without mercury, regard to diet, or fear of exposure.

SECONDARY SYPHILIS, &c.

Serofluous affections, ulcers in the throat or neck, angles and curves of the tons, trichonodosis on the skin, and every variety of blood-thirsty and completely crusting of Persons affected with any private complaints should call as early as possible after contracting the disease, as much time and money may be saved thereby.

10 YOUNG MEN.—You who are troubled with constitutional weakness, generally caused by a bad habit in youth, the effects of which are nocturnal emissions, pains and distress in the head, forgetfulness, sometimes a ringing in the ears, weak eyes, &c., terminating in consumption or insanity, if neglected, are speedily and permanently cured by DR. DOW.

To MIDDLE-AGED OR EVEN OLD MEN, whose procreative organs have become impotent or weakened by the excesses of any kind, but especially bad habits in youth, DR. DOW would respectfully say that from the extensive practice which he has had in treating the above complaint for over fourteen years, he is enabled to guarantee a perfect cure in all cases; that is, a restoration of those organs to their natural and healthy state. Hardly a day passes that he is not called upon to cure the above complaint, and he is happy to say that his course of treatment has invariably effected a speedy cure.

REV. SYLVESTER COHN, Boston, Mass.—We will rather pay for it than have other preparations for nothing.

To the memory, the mere mention of the name of the fair-faced and highly popular physician, DR. DOW, that he can still himself be found in his office, though he is surpassed by none in curing all forms of disease, however protracted, ill-treated, or severely afflicted, is a consolation to his patients, and an honor to himself.

All afflicted with private complaints, if possible, should consult DR. DOW, whose medical education is not surpassed by any physician in the country. In his skill, honor and integrity, all may rely with safety, while most of the medical practitioners are without honesty or responsibility, their pretensions being grounded in ignorance and assumption.—Report of the American Academy of Natural Sciences.
